Defendants deny the allegations and Plaintiff's alleged entitlement to any of the relief set forth in the WHEREFORE clause and sub-clauses in Plaintiff's Complaint.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

Further answering, Defendants allege the following affirmative and other defenses:

FIRST DEFENSE

67. Plaintiff's Complaint fails, in whole or in part, to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. Further, Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state facts sufficient to state a claim that would support an award of actual, compensatory, punitive, or other damages against Defendants.

SECOND DEFENSE

68. Plaintiff's claimed damages, if any, are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff suffered no recoverable damages; Plaintiff failed to mitigate his alleged damages, if any; and/or Plaintiff's damages, if any, are limited by operation of the benefits he may have received from collateral sources.

THIRD DEFENSE

69. Plaintiff's claimed damages, if any, were caused by his own conduct or by the conduct of other persons or entities over whom/which Defendants had no control and for whose conduct Defendants are not liable. Additionally and/or alternatively, Plaintiff assumed the risk, was contributorily responsible, and/or cannot recover because there are superseding causes.

FOURTH DEFENSE

70. If Defendants' employee(s) committed the acts alleged in the Complaint, which allegations are denied, such acts were not foreseeable, committed outside the scope of employment and not by an agent of Defendants and, therefore, Defendants are not liable for such acts.

FIFTH DEFENSE

71. Plaintiff's Complaint fails, in whole or in part, because Defendants acted in good faith, upon proper occasion, and with proper motive. Defendants' conduct with respect to Plaintiff was based on legitimate, non-retaliatory reasons, and was not in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act, Minnesota Human Rights Act, or any other statute, law, rule, regulation, or ordinance. Moreover, the same decisions would have been reached regarding Plaintiff for legitimate reasons not related to any protected categories. No action taken by Defendants with respect to Plaintiff was unlawful and/or willful as a matter of law.

SIXTH DEFENSE

72. Plaintiff's Complaint fails, in whole or in part, because the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by a valid collective bargaining agreement, and Defendants adhered to the requirements of said collective bargaining agreement in addressing any and all issues with Plaintiff's employment.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

73. Plaintiff's claims fail, in whole or in part, to the extent Plaintiff seeks multiple recoveries for the same alleged conduct.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

74. Plaintiff's Complaint fails, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff cannot prove a prima facie case of discrimination and/or retaliation.

NINTH DEFENSE

75. Plaintiff's Complaint fails, in whole or in part, because of the business judgment rule.

TENTH DEFENSE

76. Defendants' actions were required by business necessity and were based on factors other than Plaintiff's alleged disability.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

77. Plaintiff's claims fail, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff failed to notify Defendants of the existence of a disability as that term is defined in the ADA and/or the MHRA.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

78. Plaintiff's claims fail, in whole or in part, because he did not request an accommodation pursuant to the ADA and/or MHRA.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

79. Plaintiff's claims are not actionable because the challenged employment practices are justified by legitimate, non-discriminatory, and non-pretextual business reasons unrelated to Plaintiff's alleged disability.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

80. The allegations and/or claims in Plaintiff's Complaint, based on conduct occurring prior to 300 days of the filing of Plaintiff's charge with the EEOC and /or based on conduct occurring outside of the time frame identified in Plaintiff's charge with the EEOC, are barred by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(e), as incorporated into Section 107(a) of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12117(a).

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

81. The allegations and/or claims in Plaintiff's Complaint, based on conduct occurring prior to one year of the filing of Plaintiff's charge with the MDHR and/or based on conduct occurring outside of the time frame identified in Plaintiff's charge with the MDHR, are barred by Minn. Stat. § 363A.28.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

82. Plaintiff's Complaint fails in whole as against Defendants Flint Hills Resources, LP, Koch Industries, Inc., and Koch Business Solutions, Inc., because those Defendants are not, nor have they ever been, Plaintiff's employer.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

83. Plaintiff's claims are barred against Defendants Koch Industries, Inc., and Koch Business Solutions, Inc. due to failure of service of process and/or insufficiency of service of process.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

84. The extent to which Plaintiff's Complaint may be barred by any remaining affirmative or other defenses, including those contemplated by the Rules of Civil Procedure, cannot be determined at this time without the benefit of additional discovery. Thus, as separate and affirmative defenses to Plaintiff's Complaint, Defendants reserve their right to assert all affirmative and other defenses as appropriate.

WHEREFORE, having responded to the allegations in Plaintiff's Complaint, Defendants hereby request that the Court enter an Order:

A. Dismissing the Complaint in its entirety, with prejudice, and awarding Defendants their costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, as set forth under the law; and

B. Awarding Defendants such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
